1. DMCA notice requirements. If you own a copyright and want to report a claim that a user is infringing your copyrighted work, and the work has been transmitted through or stored within any system or network maintained by Consumer Cellular, please send our authorized copyright agent (“Designated Agent”) a notice of claimed infringement that meets the minimum requirements of the DMCA.

Copyright owners may send Consumer Cellular a notification of claimed infringement to report alleged infringements of their work to:

Consumer Cellular, Incorporated
Attn: General Counsel; DMCA Notice
9363 E Bahia Drive
Scottsdale, AZ 85260
Email: legal@consumercellular.com

We will review your submission and take whatever action we deem appropriate under the DMCA, including removal of the challenged content from our system or network.

Note: Consumer Cellular is a service provider of transitory digital network communications, as contemplated by the DMCA. Therefore, we are not obligated to respond to any demands regarding and have no duty to block, or remove or disable access to, material that is transmitted over, routed over or via connections to our network, by a user or at a user’s direction or initiation.

2. DMCA counter-notice requirements. If a notification of claimed infringement has been filed against you, you can file a counter notification with our Designated Agent using the contact information shown above. All counter notifications must satisfy the requirements of the DMCA. Upon receipt of a counter notification that satisfies the requirements of DMCA, we will provide a copy of the counter notification to the user who sent the original notification of claimed infringement and will follow the DMCA’s procedures with respect to a received counter notification. In all events, you expressly agree that Consumer Cellular will not be a party to any disputes or lawsuits regarding alleged copyright infringement.

NOTE: The Designated Agent should only be contacted with respect to copyright-infringement matters. The Designated Agent will not respond to general inquiries. Anyone who knowingly makes misrepresentations regarding alleged copyright infringement may be liable for any damages incurred in connection with the removal, blocking, or replacement of allegedly infringing material. We may suspend or terminate the services of any user who is deemed to be a repeat copyright infringer in our sole judgment.
